

Paving the way from Research, to Innovation and Entrepreneurship in the Agrifood sector of Cyprus and Europe

Dimitris Tsaltas
Cyprus University of Technology

EXCELLENCE/1216/0279

Start Date: April 2019

End Date: October 2021

Total Budget: 252.954,49 €

Requested budget: 249.923.04 €

Nicolaidis Winery

National Technical
University of Athens

The project is co-funded by the European Regional Development Fund and the Republic of Cyprus.

Knowledge, professional and social development in scientific community

ASKFOOD - ERASMUS (Knowledge Alliance)

- Using forecasts and scenarios to predict trends and related skills in the food production sector
- Mapping training and creating alliances for innovative training planning
- Disseminates and promotes jointly Innovative and Mixed Education Packages (i.e. filming VR winery technology training module)
- Supports Virtual Incubation and Hacking Development Programs based on Reverse Incubation (making start ups → developing new departments)
- Observatory, Open Evaluation & Decision Support System
- Innovative training investment, Open Business Ecosystem

www.askfood.eu

Thank you

- dimitris.tsaltas@cut.ac.cy
- Tel. +357 25 002545
- Fax +357 25 002651
- Facebook Page: <http://www.facebook.com/MicrobeAtCUT>
- Twitter: <https://twitter.com/tsaltasd>
- LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/dimitris-tsaltas-24737013/>

